

FDA EDUCATION NEWSLETTER

<http://www.fda.gov/cdrh/fdaandyou/>

Welcome to FDA & YOU, a newsletter for teens, parents, and educators. Here you'll find current information on many of the FDA medical product and health topics you've been wondering about.

Health and science educators will find many resources, including pre-packaged lesson plans designed to generate classroom discussion.

Each issue of FDA & YOU is available in an easy-to-print PDF format accessed by the PDF icon next to an issue number.
